9) In August 1944, the Deputy Commr. Mysore District had recommended that Mr Narasimha Iyengar be permitted to be absorbed as a Clerk on Rs 25-1-40, on a promotional or general vacancy of the Gumasta

10) The P S Commr. who was consulted in the matter, was of the opinion that the applicant could not be absorbed as a clerk in the "General" vacancy belonging to Direct-Recruitment class as he was not a passed S S L-C candidate and that he could not also be absorbed in a "promotion" vacancy in the clerical cadre, as he was holding an Executive appointment, (i.e Bill Collector) Government agreed with the above view and in G.O No L 4832-/PH 2-44-19, d 20-11-44, the proposal was vetoed.

11) The D.C Mysore Dist has again resubmitted the question for reconsideration of orders, on the ground that the case of R V. Narasimha Iyengar, Bill collector, is similar to that of S K Govinda Gois, permanent Bill collector who, in G O No L. C 1/PH 2-44-4 dated 24-9-44, was permitted to be absorbed as clerk on Rs 20-1-25

14) In the case of S.K Govinda Gois it is seen that, in G.O.No 3653-54 C.R.B. 2-33-18, dated 4-1-34, he was exempted from the operation of the C.R.B rules for being appointed in a permanent go General vacancy of Octroi Moharir.

15) As these officials cannot hope to get a pay above Rs 25=. p.M in the Executive Establishment of the Municipality, they are applying for reversion to the Clerical line which carries a grade pay of Rs 25-1-40

16) It is not known how many such cases are existing in this and other Units under the control of the Deputy Commissioners.

17) The further remarks of the Public Service Commission may perhaps be invited on the present recommendation of the D.C Mysore District.

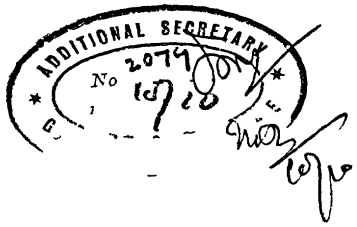
21) I regret I cannot but adhere to my remarks already furnished in my unofficial note dated 17th October 1944. Exemption granted in one case cannot, as a matter of course, be treated as a precedent for other cases.

22 It will further be seen that the following entries are recorded on pages 3 and 12 of the Character Book of Narasimha Iyengar.

Page 3.- "Ever since he came to this Municipality he was not evincing any interest in his work in spite of repeated warnings He was no doubt intelligent, but he never cared to work. On the whole he did not impress me well "



Page.12.- "Doubtful, good, is given to palying cards indescriminately, Intelligent but perverted, fairly trustworthy but as to zeal he is a stranger to it as he had no initiative even and does work after much grumbling and quarelling."

The service of S.K Govinda Jois as recorded in his Character Book was good throughout

2 5. In view of the adverse remarks recorded and as no fresh points have been urged for reconsideration, I am unable to support the present proposal of the Deputy Commissioner.
